KAIROS PRISON MINISTRY PRAYER VIGIL & COOKIES

The Ministry Team will present a short course on Christianity to 24-30 prisoners selected by the warden, and distribute cookies each day to over 1,000 inmates in the prison. The rest of the Prison Ministry members will participate by helping to organize a round-the-clock prayer vigil to support the weekend and by helping in an area-wide effort to obtain thousands of homemade cookies. Parishioners are invited to participate by signing up to pray in support of the weekend during one of the time slots, and/or by baking cookies to send into the prison with the Kairos Team. The types of cookies that are generally acceptable are chocolate chip, oatmeal, peanut butter, molasses, ginger and sugar cookies. Cookies should be between 2 and 2 ½ inches in diameter, not more than ½ inch thick, and must not contain fruit or nuts or be covered by sugar or icing. Please layer them in boxes to prevent breakage and indicate the number of cookies packed on the outside of the box. Cookies should be brought to the social hall on Sunday, April 26th before the 12 Noon Mass. Prayer Vigil Sign-Up Sheet will be placed in the church lobby.
